Allied First Bank Implements VSoft's Remote Deposit, Mobile Capture Solutions

SAN DIEGO, March 21, 2011 – VSoft Corporation, a global information and technology provider of process improvement solutions for financial institutions, announced at the ICBA National Convention and Techworld that Allied First Bank selected its home/office and mobile remote deposit capture solutions. The Oswego, Ill.-based bank chose the solutions for the ease of use, improved functionality and customer benefits.

Allied First Bank had a vision to improve the services it offered customers through home and small business remote deposit capture via flatbed scanners and smartphones. After much due diligence, the bank selected VSoft for its user-friendly, fully automated workflow and ability to provide single sign on (SSO) to the bank's current Internet banking partner.

"At Allied First Bank we are committed to delivering advanced financial solutions that simplify both business and personal banking process for our customers," said Ken Bertrand, president of Allied First Bank. "VSoft's remote deposit capture solution integrates seamlessly with our internet banking system while enabling us to improve customer relations and maintain our dedication to progressive banking practices."

VSoft's comprehensive suite of image-based check processing solutions process checks from all points of entry and reduce risk. Its Agile Home/Office Capture solution presents a cost effective method for capturing, validating, correcting, balancing and sending deposits. Additionally, customized threshold review schedules continuously monitor deposit activity to prevent fraud.

"Our flexible remote deposit capture solutions allow Allied Bank to leverage its current technology, while increasing its value to current and prospective customers," said Murthy Veeraghanta, chairman and managing director, VSoft Corporation. "Like the bank, we are dedicated to always providing the best customer service solutions, and mobile and home/office capture is on the top of that list."
