VSoft Corporation to Exhibit at Numerous Financial Industry Conferences
VSoft to attend Tech Mecca, ICBA National Convention, BAI Payments Connect and CUNA GAC

ATLANTA, February 2, 2015 - VSoft Corporation, a global provider of information and technology solutions for financial institutions, announced today they will attend a number of the leading industry conferences this spring starting with Tech Mecca in Dallas, TX.

Both its' payment processing solutions and its' next-generation core processing platform, CoreSoft, will be featured at Tech Mecca, ICBA National Convention, BAI Payments Connect and CUNA GAC. VSoft's solutions offer advanced technology and a breadth of must-have functionality including risk management and a common user interface across solutions. VSoft's flexible, unified platform was recently rearchitected using HTML5 technology and is designed to provide tight integration capability.

VSoft is among the US market leaders for payment processing solutions with more than 2,600 financial institutions using its' technology. "Our tenure, experience and continuous investments in our payment processing and core processing platforms distinguish us from other providers," said Murthy Veeraghanta. "We are looking forward to showcasing our solutions at these conferences this year. We enjoy opportunities to visit with our current clients that are in attendance as well as meet other institutions that could benefit from a relationship with VSoft."
