Pearl Harbor FCU Advances Member Service with Mobile Deposit from VSoft
Hawaii based credit union leverages VServe, VSoft's data center, to host the solution

ATLANTA, February 24, 2015 - VSoft Corporation, a global provider of information and technology solutions for financial institutions, announced today its new partnership with Hawaii based credit union, Pearl Harbor FCU. The credit union will leverage VSoft's data center, VServe, to host the Mobile Deposit solution.

With close to $340 million assets, Pearl Harbor will offer its growing membership the ability to deposit checks with their mobile devices using VSoft's solution. As self service banking has become more mainstream, the adoption and demand for mobile deposit has increased. Pearl Harbor prides itself on providing trusted banking services and reliable banking products to its members.

"Our institution's mission is to provide excellent service to our members," said Dan Terada, VP Operations/IT, Pearl Harbor FCU. "Over the next three years, our goal is to substantially grow our active mobile user base by attracting potential members with relevant product offerings. It was a tedious process selecting a vendor but it was VSoft's features, functionalities and successful track record that seemed to coincide with our growth plan. The combination of quality technology and loyal partnership, will translate over to our members' experience and we are eager to see the positive outcome in the near future."

VSoft's Mobile Deposit solution is currently integrated with fifteen different mobile banking providers. In addition, they are open to working with new vendors to provide institutions a fully integrated solution.

"VSoft is excited to welcome Pearl Harbor Federal Credit Union to the VSoft family," said Murthy Veeraghanta. "We've been fortunate to see positive growth across all of our remote deposit capture solution especially mobile deposit. Our technology, unified platform, and commitment to innovation and service are resonating with financial institutions of all sizes. I'm pleased that Pearl Harbor is on of those institutions."
